Champagne and Shopping for Breakthrough

Last night Lady Apsley, of Cirencester Park in Gloucestershire, opened the doors of the new showroom for her internet designer clothing business, ClothesAgency.com based in Cirencester, for an exclusive group of guests, including her supportive husband Lord Apsley, in aid of Cotswold Breakthrough Breast Cancer.

This charity fund-raising event was attended by over 100 guests from Gloucestershire society, including The Marchioness of Reading and Olympic medallist Sharron Davies. The evening was enjoyed with champagne and canapés, viewing the vast collection of beautiful pre-owned and new designer clothing in the sumptuous converted Cotswold barn showroom.

“Champagne and shopping – what could be nicer!” commented Lady Apsley, Patron of Cotswold Breakthrough Breast Cancer.

Cotswold Breakthrough was formed earlier this year by mother of three Eira Hooper, who herself has undergone treatment for the disease.

“I want to raise as much money as possible for Breakthrough to fund a cure for this hideous disease,” said Eira. “I want to help create a future free from the fear of breast cancer and give hope for my daughter Polly and all women”.

Next week the group is holding a big Auction of Promises at the Royal Agricultural College and have many exciting plans for the future, including a group walk to London and an everlasting meal. For further details on the group please contact Eira on 01285 658724.
